Letter from the Editor

Holly Lenz

Spring is finally here and with the blooming of flowers, I am also being delighted by the photos of Spring foals that I have been receiving for the newsletter. Keep them coming ! Perhaps someday I will have a foal of my own, but for now, I will love all of yours.

I went to my most recent Ultrasound on Thursday and they informed me that I am having a colt.... I mean a boy. I was so sure it was going to be a girl! Amazing what they can tell looking at those blurry images on the monitor!

Satin, my mare, made me very proud by letting me drive her around the trails. True, I was on foot, but she finally figured out what I was asking for (we've been working on this on and off for a while now). Perhaps by the end of the summer, she'll be pulling a cart too (not that I'd be allowed to ride in it before I have this baby).

Satin has also been kind enough to take my husband on rides. Brian is not much of a rider. He's confident, but he lacks training. This week he rode Satin around the trail, and I am proud to say that Satin did not run home with him, but walked around the trail like a good horse. I think by the time this baby is old enough to ride, she'll be a great kids horse in spite of what the vet said at her vet check.

My mom brought her new horse home from Oregon last weekend. He is a Peruvian Paso gelding who I helped her pick out. He was shown successfully in Canada and has been a trail horse, pack horse and guest horse the last couple of years. He's loads of fun to ride! My mom had originally looked at him last fall and wasn't quite sold on him, but after looking at horses all winter, she went back and fell in love with him this time around. The drive home to Reno was easy with him. Since he has been camping many times, the night of camping on the way home was no big deal for him, even though he was the only horse on the trip. My mom has only had a chance to ride him once since getting home, but so far, so good. She should be getting to go on a lot of rides with him this summer.

Good riding to everyone. Give all of your horses a hug for me! 1

Region 4 High-Point Jackpot

The current state of the economy results in our Region's Arabian Shows facing a questionable future. The idea of rewarding the folks who support these shows led to the creation of the Region 4 Jackpot program. Exhibitors pay a $25 fee to nominate their horse in each category. At the end of the show year, the money for each category is split among the winners. Note that points count for the horse no matter who rides it. The winner of each category is also eligible to have a picture posted on the Region 4 website. We have also had a few offers of sponsorship, which might allow us to award an overall high point prize. The decision was made to award points based on placings without regard to the number of participants in the class. This evens the difference in winnings from small or large shows, or various class sizes. The entry form and rules are posted on the Region 4 website, aharegioniv.com. To participate, send your entry to our Region 4 treasurer, Barb Garcia, right away at DCArabs@aol.com or call 503-585-7678.

Thank You

A big thank you to all the volunteers who helped at the Back to Basic Dressage show. Because of the willingness of these folks to do their part, the show ran smoothly with no problems.

AiM members: Karen Miller (scribed all day both Saturday and Sunday!), Jonathan Howell, Grant Howell, Joanne Collilns, Donna Edwards, Zoe Ann Harrington, Kaye Phaneuf, Jan Stark, Jan Fenseth, Marcia Donnelly, Nate Asby

Non AiM members: Lindsey Hall, Kim Stucky, Carol Stevens, Patti (Jan Fenseth's friend)

A big thank you to Karen Bragg who volunteered her time as secretary and manager. She did an awesome job!! Another big thanks to Jonathan Howell who assisted Karen in the office and on the grounds both days of the show, all hours.

We will also need volunteers for the Arabians in Motion Sport Horse Classic and AHA Region 4 Sport Horse Championships. This will require many more volunteers. Please consider giving some time to help make this show a success, even if you are showing. We can use spouses, friends, relatives, co-workers so be asking these folks to help us make this the best show yet.

Thanks
Sarah Asby, Volunteer Co-ordinator

Thunderhill Arabians

On April 9, Again Reflekshan presented owner Jan Abela, with her dream filly, a chestnut with three white socks, a star and a strip. The filly is being called Annie in honor of Papa, Annapolis+.

On April 10, shortly before midnight, Crystalaffire (Afriendly Fire X AA Crystal Flame), delivered her first foal, a bay colt with a huge star, connecting strip, snip, and a lower lip that makes him appear as if he is blowing raspberries! Like his sister, he has three white socks. He also has a dorsal stripe and shoulder patches, and boy can he TROT!

In June, we expect foals out of Crystalaffire's full sister, Afirebrite, and another out of Leila IA, who produced the incredible Minnannapolis, last year.

Chestnut filly out of Jan Abela's mare, Agai Reflekshan, Born April 09 around 5:00 A.M. Star, strip, snip (Such an Annapolis-thing!), both hind socks and left front sock. This is one HUGE filly.

April 10 at 11:50, Crystalaffire (Afiendly Fire X AA Crystal Flame), delivered a somewhat smaller, but nonetheless adorable bay colt with a huge star, narrow connecting strip, snip, and lower lip, with both hind and right front socks. He has a dorsal stripe and wither stripes, most unusual.

At 6-days old, this boy is already on a mission. Sired by Annapolis+ (Monogramm X SS Annita), out of Sport Horse Champion Mare Crystalaffire (Afriendly Fire X AA Crystal Flame).

WANTED TO LEASE: My nine year old son has a very sweet, very green mare but he needs something he can ride NOW. He's not experienced enough to make his horse do what he wants yet. So I am looking for an older, experienced horse that is good with kids and goes on the trail. A care lease would be ideal or a horse looking for a retirement home...

I would prefer an Arab but am looking for the right horse for Spence. If you know of anything, let me know.
