Letter from the Editor

Holly Lenz

I had a booth at the Canby 4H tack sale yesterday. Alex was at a sale when he was 6 weeks and now has been back at 6 months. He was a great sport both times in spite of having to get up at 4 am.

I was a bit surprised when I got to the sale to set up at 7:30 and found out that they had started letting people in at 7. I wonder when that changed? It is a great sale though, and lots of people come through every time and it just costs $20. My sales were not so good this time, but I at least paid for my booth, and hopefully the exposure will result in later sales.

I like to have booths at shows, but I have to pick the inexpensive ones to minimize my losses. Most shows I break even; I rarely make much profit. Unfortunately the price of a booth does not guarantee more sales. If it did, than the expensive shows would be worth their cost.

I have often heard vendors grumble about slow sales. If they don't make money, they will probably not be back. This is the big challenge with getting vendors for shows. The vendors have to feel confident that they will make not just enough money to pay for the booth, but also to make it worth their time. Perhaps offering an option of a lower rate plus a percentage would be effective? Or maybe offering smaller split booths for budget conscience sellers?

More important is to get vendors to return year after year. If a vendor does have a good show, they will probably be back. Look at Scottsdale- they have a waiting list for booths since the same people come back year after year. I'm sure the booths are not cheap, but they are successful. The vendors sell their products and make money, so they leave the show happy.

There are good deals at horse show booths, so take a look around next time you were at a show. If you buy something you want, it is a good deal for you, for the vendor and for the show.

Enjoy riding in this beautiful Spring weather. I know I do.

Minutes from the AiM General Meeting, February 5, 2010, Shari's Wilsonville

Minutes as written were approved by Kaye Phanuf and seconded by Ahna Bowman.

Jon Howell was mentioning that he really enjoyed having Jessica Wisdom as a clinician and is looking forward to having her back on Sunday February 28th.

Treasures Report: We broke even w@ $135.00 AiM has $25,870.50 in the bank.

We talked about a sponsorship – and discussed Wells Fargo Bank. Jon to pitch to changing to Wells Fargo – as long as there is electronic banking.

Budget Items:

Marcia approved PNER ad at $35.00. Flying changes ad – 1 for AiM in the Hood and 2 for the summer show. Kaye will take care of these. Directory listing in Flying Changes is $120.00 for 1 year. All were in favor and Jon is to take care of it.

Activities Report – Ahna Bowman

Horse expo: Sport horse theme. Champion- past, present and future. Carriage driver, breeding horses – Janet Jones and Annapolis. Pure bred dressage, endurance, half-Arabian dressage and jumping. Basically the versatility of the Arabian horse. She needs help with the hospitality booth and the petting zoo. Stuff from AHA, promotions, marketing. Region 4 banners, tent, 10+ horses and stalls – 3 stalls for hospitality. Barb is going to do bookmarkers. Volunteers for the expo – an email to be sent.

Recommendation for picnic and trail ride @ Willamette farm for a meeting?? Marcia to check it out.

By Laws: Billie Joe is not here and nothing has been done on it.

Old business:

AiM @ the Hood. Already to go! Kaye getting phone calls in regards to the show. Lisa posted it on Face book, USDF and Fort Vancouver. Good Job. We need to order Ribbons. Sweat shirts with hoodies? Certificates? Turn in your ribbons for a prize? All the judges are ready to go with the contracts signed. Jumps – Heath Curry was supposed to get new jumps, but is no longer involved. Ahna and Scott Bowman will be organizing the jumps.

Dressage court – Jennifer's chapter will be keeping that organized.

2010 AiM Classic business:

Jumper judge is taken care of. Secretary?? Front end person that needs to be on site – Debbie Hinds. Lisa to do schedules. Kaye to do data entry for results and pre show reports.

*** This is still a work in progress****

Ahna does like the plan! Marcia is checking into the food vendors and we are just having food. No clothing vendors etc.

2011 -2013 AiM Classic date changes:

Couple of options – June 16-19th, June 30- July 3rd, Aug 25-28th – These are the dates that Devonwood has open. Primary date was early June and the secondary date was the August date.

Sport horse Region 5 has both shows July 1-5. This may make the late June dates hard. Ahna's reasons for date change: Barns that attend Youth Nationals and qualifications. It is too hard and pushes the riders and horses too much. The opportunity for the youth to have Nationals because Sport horse Nationals is moving to Kentucky.

Linda Royer is in favor of the June dates. Barb is against early June because of the youth graduations and April to July – all the shows are crunched up.

Kaye had the survey results: 8 in favor of late August – 30 horses, 7 in favor of early August (the current dates), 4 people in favor of mid June – 10 horses, 4 people in favor for late June – 10 horses.

Trainer side: Ahna does not agree with the survey.

Amateur side: Lisa's comment was that this show is their National. We school at home without trainers and sometimes we are not financially about to do it all. We can go to open shows to qualify; the regional show is not needed.

If we move to mid June, then riders need a shorter time to qualify. Kaye suggests that we keep it later in the year and "See the show for the North West as a destination Show." Ahna said that the later August date would work and Canada will go.

August 25-28 is the new date. We need to call Devon Wood and Jennifer Milburn about those dates. We need to check with Devon Wood about a price break on stall and offer a 3 year contract. Jon was to talk to her about the stalls before Wednesday.

Wednesday Meeting

Conference call meeting. Marcia offered appreciation for the effort. Next meeting day will be after the April show. May will be a committee meeting before the show on awards.

Sponsors – ads for sales leaving the platinum and gold the same price as before.

Show committee meeting for August

Website – Ad s- Are there going to be changes? This is free for members and non members pay:

Sponsor class - $25.00, 90 day ad in the classified section

The web site will have the sponsor and links on the front opening page. AiM.org will be show casing different links "Visit our friends and Sponsors."

We may use a different photographer and videographer.

February Thermal Dressage & Hunter Jumper Show

ZoeAnne Arrington

I just got back from the Thermal Horse show in California. The weather was fabulous. The dressage part of this show was a CDI which was a qualifying for international competitions. Heather competed with Escorial (Monk) in the Prix St Georges (61.053). Unfortunately, in the Prix St. Georges test, Monk decided to practice his one tempi changes in the lines of changes. However, he was 10th in the class--just making the cut-off for awards (and victory ride, of course). Heather also competed in the Intermediaire I and the horse was more together and the test was clean, including all of the lines of changes. She got a better score (64.474) and placed sixth (yahoo!). Guenter Seidel won the I1 class with Trinity. Trinity is a very hot horse (by Flemmingh) but is fabulous. A lot of the California riders were there including Sue Blinks, Leslie Morse, Steffan and Shannon Peters (Ravel wasn't there). So it was fun to watch the riders. Heather also competed my Holsteiner colt (Majek) at third level. He won all of his classes--they were small classes but I liked the blue ribbons anyway! Heather's training abilities never cease to amaze me--she's had Majek for less than two years.

We were staying with Meagen Gass (Jordan) who is a Hunter/Jumper trainer and is my neighbor (Oregon City). Megan has been training one of Heather's horses named ZZ (Zimbalist NBF, by Flemmingh) and sold him at the show (ironically to Shelly and Jeff Camp--here in Canby--we all laughed about that). Apparently, the Hunter/Jumper world uses these shows to buy/sell horses, unlike the dressage world, where this is rare (in my experience). Meagan and Heather have been working together for a while. Several years ago Heather sold Meagen a horse named Lola. Heather bought Lola and was training her, got an 80% at Training Level at Lake Oswego, then the next week decided the mare would be a better jumper (we all thought she was crazy). But, Megan bought the horse (renamed her Lolita--who accounts for taste in names anyway?) and has won a bunch of shows on her--has been jumping her Grand Prix this year (and maybe last year, too?).

At Thermal, the Hunter/Jumper part had all levels including Grand Prix. Of course, Meagen won a bunch of classes, including one where she jumped on a strange horse, and won the class against 80 other riders! There were lots of big names at this show (lost on me), but one guy stood out in the mass of young, and really young people. His name was Hap Hansen and he looked like he was in his 70s or plus. However, he rode the Grand Prix beautifully and with great confidence. I don't know how he ended up placing, but he had a clean ride.

We left on Monday, February 15 for Boise (where Heather is training with Ernst Herrmann) but the Hunter/Jumper show had another three weeks, including this week which is an "off" week. Heather flies in today to clinic this weekend at Summerfield Farms (Ilene Parent) in Battleground, so needed to get back. Meagan was still there (having a good time, of course) when we left.

Did I mention the weather was fabulous!?!

Looks Like Great Success for AiM at the Hood!

Marcia Donnelly

Our first show of the 2010 season is off to a fabulous start! There are so far 73 horses entered in the show scheduled for April 23, 24 and 25 at the Mt Hood Equestrian Center in Boring. We have grown our Back to Basics dressage show to a show with each sporthorse division represented. So far there are horses entered in classes in each division including dressage, hunter/jumper, carriage driving, sporthorse in-hand, sporthorse under saddle, and show hack.

There are 73 dressage rides on Friday and 78 on Saturday plus one First Level musical freestyle! Five carriage horses will compete in obstacles and reinsmanship while 10 hunter horses will compete in 51 judged rides over fences. Both purebred and half/Arabian horses are represented in the in-hand classes. Our show hack and sporthorse under saddle classes have very good numbers.

We want to thank all of you who have entered this show! We are very excited to see such a great turnout. We will have wonderful ribbons and awards as well. Of course with all these entries we need lots of volunteers. Please contact Sarah Asby if you can spare any time. Her email is SDasby@comcast.net

Hope to see lots of you in Boring whether you are competing, volunteering or just having fun watching!

Show Volunteering

Sarah Asby

Reminder, that volunteers will be needed for the upcoming AiM at the Hood show on April 23-25. Any help will be appreciated. Classes will be held into the evening so please consider giving a few hours of your time one of the days to help the show run smoothly. If you help at least 4 hours, you will receive a token of appreciation. Contact me now to get the job of your choice. We need scorers, scribes for both dressage and in hand, runners, and warmup gate person/announcer.

Member Spotlight - Joann Hofeldt

Sarah Asby

Joann is the owner of Pete's Mountain Arabians and has been a member of AiM for many years. She has owned pure bred Arabian horses for almost 30 years. She has bred Arabians and shown them. Currently she has three horses - Rosie, Lita, and Feralita.

When did you get your first Arabian horse?

My husband was building a barn on our property. I told him that if we were going to have a barn, I wanted a horse. I always wanted an Arabian because I think they are beautiful so that was what we were looking for. My husband worked with a man named Rusty Miller who showed Arabians at halter. My husband talked to me and one day surprised me with a gift of an Arabian gelding.

What do you like about the Arabian breed?

I have always liked the beauty of the Arabian horse but found that I also like their personality. I find them very personable.

You ride dressage. How did this happen?

When I first got Arabians and starting showing I had my horses shown in halter classes and I showed mostly in Hunter Pleasure classes. I started taking dressage lessons from someone I met and went to my first dressage show to watch. I met Karen Miller and Tristin Hardy. Tristin agreed to give me more lessons and showed my stallion, Fire in dressage classes. He did well. I found that I enjoyed the precision of dressage and gave up Hunter Pleasure.

You no longer show and breed but continue to be a member of the AiM club. Why is that?

I like to go to the clinics, meetings and other activities. I enjoy reading the magazine and keeping in touch with what is going on. I also like having the liability insurance.

If you were to show again, what would be your dream class to enter?

I enjoy music and dancing so one day would love to do a musical freestyle.

What other activities do you participate in besides your horse hobby and business?

Ice skating (have done ice dancing in the past), ballet and occasionally ballroom dance classes. In the past I have snow skied, water skied, and did diving.

Linda Royer

I sold one of my boys, FF Liberte' to Kristin Hardin of Santa Ynez, CA. Kristin is a well known hunter/jumper trainer who has taken numerous horses to national Championships.

Arabian and Half Arabian Sporthorses at the Horse Fair and Expo

A huge thank you and job well done to Ahna Bowman for a wonderful program at the Horse Expo in Albany!! Ahna developed the concept for the presentation which included the announcer's script, the music and the seating area in the stall aisle. The Expo started on Friday and went throughout the day on Sunday so it was a significant time commitment on the part of humans and horses. The Bowmans also had to deal with major truck problems which prevented the Bowmans and Howells from coming home on Sunday!

Many thanks as well to Scott and Taylor Bowman, the entire Howell family, Carlene Benson and Janet and Jeff Jones for bringing their horses. Billie Jo Morley did a great job caring for horses and being a jack of all trades.

The horses entered the arena to the theme music from the movie, The Last of the Mohicans. Grant Howell drove El Shikar Hariq KB (Harley) in first followed by Amanda Howell on HH Antonia+ (Tova), Elisabeth Pate on Ace of Spades++++// (Ace), Porscha Swanson on Annapolis+/, Carlene Benson on MEH Megabucks+/( Mo), Taylor Bowman on Lady Loria++++// (Hannah) and finally Jon Howell bringing the 2 year old BSH Vintage Isabella ( Izzy) in hand. The presentation was done at a different scheduled time each of the three days of the show.

Each driver, rider or handler had an opportunity to do a few turns around the arena showcasing what they do best. The announcer introduced each combination and told a bit about the pair, the horse's breeding as well as describing the requirements of the discipline represented

In the stall aisle, folks could sit on the couch and watch a highlight video from the 2009 Sporthorse Nationals or browse through the magazines and other information. The candy bowl was empty by mid day!

The horses received lots of attention from people walking down the aisles. Some folks commented that they did not know Arabians could do some of those things! We had lots of chances to brag about the sporthorse Arabian.

Again many, many thanks to all who participated or helped at the Horse Expo. Hopefully the Bowman's truck is fixed by now!

For Sale: Lovely grey Arabian gelding. Carismatico (Tico) is nine years old, a solid 15.2 hands, short backed, long legs, good feet and a winning personality. Tico has had over six months with a professional trainer in Bend. His trainer is a dressage rider and she took him to a couple of open dressage shows for fun. He does love to get out and do things! His registered name is FCA Carismatico if you want to look up his pedigree (3/4 Spanish). I am taking him back to Bend (I live in Fort Klamath) by the first of April. I am asking $3500.00 for him which is under what he would sell for in normal times. but I am most interested in the right person and place for him. If you are interested or have any questions please call or email.

Endurance Ride

Endurance 101

So you think you want to do an endurance ride?

Join us on Friday, July 9 in the beautiful Ochoco Mountains of central Oregon for a painless and educational introduction to endurance.

- On the Trail First Aid by Cassee Terry, DVM
- Something Fabulous by Robert Washington, DVM
- Endurance 101 - Learn:
  - How to take a pulse
  - How fast an endurance pace is
  - What kind of tack is more helpful than others
  - What a vet check is like
  - Do I have to have an Arabian?
  - And a few tricks from the “pros”

Each person taking the Endurance 101 class will enjoy a short ride with two other students plus an endurance mentor. There will be a limited class size so please try to sign up ahead of time.

The two mini-seminars by Dr Terry and Dr Washington are for all riders and are at no cost.

Endurance 101 will be $25 for each attendee and will include all hand-outs, lunch and either a FREE trail ride on Saturday or Sunday OR $25 off of a Limited Distance ride on either day.
